

VIOLENCE INTERVENTION PROGRAM

2022 Day of Service Art Supplies Collection Drive

Getty is holding a Collection Drive for art supplies for children and youth in VIP's programs. Special Collections Bins are located at the Center's CSS area and the entire Getty Community is invited to donate. The art supplies donated should be new (not used) and/or pre-packaged. Acceptable donations include the following:

- Poster Paints (Tempera paint is a staple for kids' art activities)
- Watercolor or Paint Sets. Look for non-toxic. No spray paints.
- Canvas (not too big that a child cannot carry themselves).
- Paint Sticks and/or Oil Pastels. Look for non-toxic.
- Markers. (Washable for 10yrs and under or look for non-toxic and age permitted)
- Crayons.
- Colored Pencils.
- Coloring Books (for ages 2-18yrs with appropriate subject matter; please NO depictions of guns, weapons or graphic violence was requested by VIP. Barbie is okay with this group).
- Drawing Pencils or Graphite.
- Erasers.
- Art Bins or Craft Material Boxes or Storage.
- Playdough. Or any pre-packaged non-toxic sculpting materials.
- Sketch books. Or Watercolor pads.
- Tracing paper pads. Or Grid paper pads.
- Construction Paper pads.
- Scrapbooking materials or starter kit.
- Specialty or Patterned Paper pads.
- Stickers/sticker books or packs.
- Elmer's glue (or kids' non-toxic glue. No spray glues).
- Glitter. Or Glitter Glue.
- Felt, Foam Paper, or Faux Fur.
- Simple Sewing Kits.
- Gogly eyes. Pom-poms. Plastic Gems.
- Pipe Cleaners. Or Popsicle-style Sticks.
- Paint brushes or foam brush packs.
- Any prepacked art-making materials made for ages 1-18yrs.